Declaration

The Johns Hopkins Chinese Students Association is a cultural student interest group supported by the Student Activities Commission and Office of Multicultural Affairs. CSA’s primary goal is to promote the awareness, understanding, and appreciation of the Chinese culture among Johns Hopkins students through public events. In addition, CSA fosters a supporting social and cultural environment in order to encourage cohesion and unity of the Chinese student body. CSA welcomes students of all ethnic backgrounds to participate.
Article I. Membership

1. General body membership is open to all students of Johns Hopkins University. The general body will be the recipient of CSA general body emails and may attend any of CSA’s public events.
2. Board membership is open to all students of Johns Hopkins University upon election. Members of the board will receive all CSA emails and may attend both public and board only events. In addition, board members must fulfill the requirements outlined below.
3. Both general body and board membership are a privilege, and may be revoked as outlined in article VI.

Article II. Admission to the Board

- Eligibility
  1. Freshman representatives are selected by interviewers, which consist of the freshman coordinator, at least one president, and any other officers present at interview.
  2. The most important criterion for selecting freshman representatives are enthusiasm, dedication, reliability, other time commitments, and whether he or she will fit in well with the rest of the board.
  3. Upperclassman representatives are interviewed and selected in the same manner.
  4. Around ten, and no more than fifteen freshman/upperclassmen representatives should be accepted each year.
• Elections
